SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall submit to a search of his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or Probation Officer with reasonable suspicion concerning unlawful conduct or a violation of a condition of probation or supervised release. Failure to submit to such a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn residents that the premises may be subject to searches.
2. The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in any state where the defendant resides, is employed, carries on a vocation, or is a student, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall provide proof of registration to the Probation Officer within days of release from imprisonment/placement on probation.
3. The defendant shall participate in a sex offender treatment program, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions of such program, including, but not limited to, polygraph. The Probation Officer shall disclose the presentence report and/or any previous mental health evaluations or reports to the treatment provider.
4. The defendant shall have no physical contact with children under the age of 18 years unless he is in the presence of that child's parent or guardian.
5. The defendant shall not have any contact with the "victim", unless otherwise directed by the probation officer.
6. The defendant shall not possess or use a computer or computer-related devices, including, but not limited to, personal computers, personal data assistants (PDAs), Internet appliances, electronic games, and cellular telephones, as well as their peripheral equipment, that can access, or can be modified to access, the Internet, electronic bulletin boards, and other computers, or similar media with access to any online service at any location (including his place of employment), without the prior approval of the Probation Officer. This includes access through any Internet service provider, bulletin board system, or any public or private computer network system. The defendant shall not have another individual access the Internet on his behalf to obtain files or information which he has been restricted from accessing himself, or accept restricted files or information from another person. The defendant may use the Internet for the limited purpose of conducting banking, housing searches, or a personal use approved in advance by the probation officer.
7. The defendant shall not own or possess any firearms, ammunition, destructive devices, or other dangerous weapons.
